Tension Mounts in Tunisia as Result of Bombing

DULLES SAYS CONFERENCE NOT NEEDED

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today appealed to France and Tunisia to settle their differences and restore their traditionally close friendly relations. The appeal came at a news conference at which Dulles also said that a foreign ministers conference is not an essential preliminary to holding an East-West summit conference. Dulles said evidence that agreement could be achieved by a summit conference is essential.

On the Tunisian issue which rose Saturday over French aerial attack on a Tunisian border village, Dulles refused to commit the United States to a precise line of action.

He disclosed that Tunisian Ambassador Mongi Slim has asked the United States to support an appeal to the U. N. Security Council but Dulles made no commitment pending word on what precise action would be sought.

Mrs. Louis Lauria Jr., 30, said she and her husband were awakened by cries of Louis Jr. Lauria collapsed but his wife ran to a neighbor and summoned aid. All members of the Lauria family were taken to a hospital and were discharged after treatment.

Earlier, 34-year-old Olysses Jewell and two of his children were overcome by gas fumes in their North Side apartment. They were hospitalized and are in fair condition.

Bedford County Women Serve on Murder Jury

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP)—For the first time in the history of Bedford County women have been chosen to serve on a jury at a murder trial.

Five women were among the 12 jurors selected yesterday at the opening of a trial for William H. Howalter, 40, of Clearville, in the fatal stabbing of his wife, Hilda, 5, last Nov. 14.

Court attaches said women were selected for jury duty at previous murder trials because there were no facilities for them. The last murder trial in Bedford County was heard 14 years ago.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A compromise was reached today on an attempt to pay more than 30 million dollars to the federal government in social security taxes for state and school employees.

Alfred T. Novello, deputy auditor general, said he has approved payment of a $30,515,631 check—described as the largest ever made to the federal social security fund.

Police Report Reflects High Costs of Traffic Accidents

Automobile accidents in Warren Borough during 1957 caused an outrageous $82,261 in property damage, according to the annual Police Department report submitted to Borough Council last night by Chief Mike Evan.

The staggering total resulted from 261 accidents which injured 101 persons and killed one. That figure compares with a total of $66,972 in damages from 239 accidents in 1956, $51,52 from a similar number in 1955.

In the interests of Public Safety there were 937 Vehicle Code arrests during the past year. Of these, 404 were for traffic light violations, 225 for excessive speed, 95 for stop sign, 85 for reckless driving, plus others.

Possibility of School Tax Increase Reflected in Study Of Finances by Area Board

Joint Committee members Monday night gave tentative consideration to a budget of $942,096 in Warren Area Jointure for the next school year. This compares with the 1957-58 budget of $876,113.

Asked if this means a tax increase, School Superintendent Carl E. Whipple replied: "Frankly, I don't know." The budget will come up for final approval at a full Warren Area Joint School Board session in Beatty School Library at 7:30 p. m. Monday, March 10th. At that same meeting, preliminary sketches in final form of the new high school building will be presented for approval.

It was pointed out that the Warren Jointure will be spending $249,945 in debt service during 1958-59 if the next budget stands as tentatively approved. This school year the figure was $57,575.

Much of the increase will be absorbed eventually by state reimbursement. However, it has been noted that such delays forced one township last year to borrow $75,000 to tide its board over until subsidy arrived.

Joint committee members were informed last night that due to a mixup in Harrisburg, what was originally planned to be a room schedule for 1200 students is now said to be adequate for reimbursement for only 1147. With a reimbursement loss of $1700 for each of the differing 53 pupils, the cash loss to the jointure would be $90,100.

However, last night the Joint Committee approved addition of three extra rooms asked for by the state if the original building pupil size is to stand. Members approved the state's recommendation that one oversized classroom, one home making station and a music room be added to the building. Figures on possible costs of these additions were not discussed. However, they are expected to be incorporated into the sketches submitted to the full board in March.

Other changes stemming from the proposed new building began to make themselves felt last night. For one thing, religious education, now in high school grades 10, 11 and 12, will be completely changed to Beatty Junior High School grades two years hence. Next year just ninth graders will be brought into the program and WHS seniors will be exempted from religious instruction.

The Committee felt that in view of the new school's location, religious education leave was no longer feasible.

Elsewhere in new school building details, members were officially informed that so far only two small properties had been bought, plus some oil rights. This apparently means that the meeting Friday with one landowner's lawyer and Building and Grounds Committee was unsuccessful. However, the Committee announced it would stick at it and scheduled meetings for the fourth Monday of each month as long as necessary.

Committee members approved $56,000 (including $46,000 for land and oil rights) which will pay for land and architect's fee through July 1st. The superintendent said it had been figured this sum would originally have been about $36,000.

A survey was taken and Warren showed that it stood well above the national average of students taking math and science courses, with the exception of plain geometry and algebra 1. However, these courses are already being accelerated and next year the two special eighth grade groups will be taking the equivalent of 11th grade courses. Also, two

Eastern Half of Nation Gripped By Frigid Blast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Winter's worst and longest spell of cold and stormy weather in the Eastern half of the nation showed little indication of a general breakup today.

The arctic air which has kept temperatures near zero for almost a week in some Northern sections remained stationary. The huge mass of cold air also held fast across the country's Eastern half except in southern parts of Texas and most of Florida.

More snow and ice hit many sections. A near blizzard pounded western New York yesterday as other upstate areas battled to dig out from snowdrifts which measured up to 15 feet. The violent weather since the weekend was blamed for at least 48 deaths, including 18 in New York state. Other states reporting deaths attributed to the stormy, cold weather were: Massachusetts, 8; Pennsylvania, 6; Oklahoma, 5; Texas, Iowa and Illinois, 3 each; and Indiana and Mississippi, 1 each.

Most of the deaths were in traffic accidents on icy and snow-covered highways. Others were

Royal Merger Is Being Discussed Again Today

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Iraq's King Faisal was due in Jordan today to discuss with his cousin King Hussein a royal merger to counter the overshadowing union of Egypt and Syria.

Indications grew that the kingdom of Saudi Arabia might join the two Hashemite realms of Jordan and Iraq in a federation—provided Iraq pulls out of the pro-Western Baghdad Pact that has alienated her from powerful nationalist elements in the Arab world.

STUDY UNEMPLOYMENT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Representatives of the building trades unions in Pennsylvania came here today to discuss unemployment in that field.

"We are going to survey unemployment levels in the commonwealth and find out where we are hurting the most from unemployment," said Michael Johnson, an official of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor.

WHAT'S IN A NAME
ALHAMBRA, Calif. (AP)—Homeowners on a 470-foot street in a subdivision here have asked for correction of a typographical error. They told the City Commission that the roadway past their homes was supposed to be called Viscount Street. When maps were recorded and street signs went up it came out "Discount Street."

4,500,000 on Jobless Rolls Report States

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government announces new figures today on unemployment in the current business slump amid demands from Capitol Hill for faster action to boost the economy.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) predicted in advance that the Commerce Department report would list 4½ million unemployed for January, and he called this too short a count.

Douglas said the report traditionally does not include the number of workers whose working hours—and pay checks—have been reduced by declining production volume. He predicted a Senate-House Economic Committee analysis will show this could be translated as equivalent to at least another million unemployed, "counting two men working a half day each as equivalent to one man unemployed for one day."

President Eisenhower met privately with four of the government officials most directly concerned with the economy. He made no announcement of what he had discussed with Secretary of the Treasury Anderson, Chairman William M. Martin of the Federal Reserve Board, Chairman Raymond S. Sahlner of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, and Dr. Gabriel Hauge, Eisenhower's personal economic adviser.

The White House meeting came on the heels of a request from the Economic Committee for a report by Monday on what new steps the administration may be planning to check the business downturn and get more men and women back to work.

Musmanno Has Idea on President's Successor

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—A Pennsylvania judge said today the vice president should be made a full-time assistant to the President—preparing him to take over in any emergency.

It is the "acme of absurdity" that the vice president must act merely as a "timekeeper of debates in a legislative body of which he is not even a member," said Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

Musmanno expressed those views in testimony prepared for a Senate Judiciary subcommittee considering the problem of presidential disability.

The Pennsylvania judge suggested amending the constitution to authorize the President to delegate any or all of his powers to the vice president in the event of emergency or inability to perform his own duties.

Governor Mixes Pants With Crossing River

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Gov. A. B. Chandler mixed his pants, bridges and taxes at a press conference yesterday.

Asked if he would veto a Louisville occupational tax bill pending in the State Legislature, Chandler said: "I put my pants on when I get up in the morning. I'll cross that bridge when I come to it."

A reporter suggested he was mixing his metaphors.

"I can't conceive of a situation," the governor said, "where a man would cross a bridge with his pants off."

Noted Singer Accused Of Neglect of Kiddies

LOS ANGELES (AP)—David Street, five-times-married singer, has been accused by his first wife of lagging in child support payments.

Mrs. Mary Payne, 32, said in Superior Court yesterday that the 37-year-old singer was $4,845 in arrears in payments for support of their son David Jr., 14.

Judge Emile Doyle granted Street a three-month continuance so he could try to reach a settlement with Mrs. Payne, now the wife of a Long Beach, C.-F.I., salesman.

Street's other ex-wives are actresses Mary Beth Hughes, Lois Andrews and Sharon Lee. He now is married to actress Debra Paget.

BASEL BURGOMASTER BOOK TO BURGESS

Warren Community Youth Ambassador for 1957, Miss Dawn Taft, at Council meeting Monday night presented Burgess William E. Rice a book from the Burgomaster at Basel, Switzerland where Miss Taft spent the summer. She commented that the book had been presented to her in return for the gold key to Warren sent along with Warren's Ambassador. The book, "Basel in Pictures," was published on the occasion of its 2,000th anniversary, said Miss Taft. After thanking Miss Taft and asking local citizens to contribute once again to the fund, Burgess Rice observed he "would like to put the book where everyone could see it—if I had an office." All Mr. Rice possesses at the Municipal Building is a parking space.

Motorist Is Found Guilty of Assault In Minor Crash

"In order to be a crime, there had to be an unprovoked assault."

After that statement, Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr. ruled in court this morning that Carl Eastman, 22, of 615 Fourth avenue, was guilty of assault. He was sentenced to pay court costs of $44.50.

However, after finding the defendant guilty, Judge Flick observed that there was no reason for severity. Conflicting testimony, said the judge, plus "uncomplimentary" language by the plaintiff figured in the slight sentence.

The case grew out of a slight accident Oct. 27 on upper Market street between the defendant Robert H. Zobrest, 52, of RD 1, Russell. After Eastman bumped into the rear of Zobrest's car, both stopped, hard words ensued and then a battle royal took place on the front lawn of a local radio announcer between five grown men.

Judge Flick, in speaking of the incident, stated that regardless of the severity of the accident "no fist fight should occur within the Borough of Warren."

Plaintiff Zobrest, who was described as almost "puny" by District Attorney Samuel F. Bonavita, was compared to the husky defendant. Zobrest said he received two black eyes and an old wound was aggravated.

Originally pleading "not guilty," Eastman changed his plea to "no defense" after the Grand Jury returned a true bill against him and a jury was picked yesterday. Attorney C. Henry Nicholson defended.

Highlight of the proceedings in court this morning came when the chief prosecution witness had to be led drunkenly under a heavy breath.

Eastman was another to change his plea after indictment by Grand Jury. Yesterday, Melvin Tingue, 44, of RD Akeley, pleaded guilty to false pretense and was fined $100 and 102 days time already spent. Tingue tried to return some paint for cash at Seneca Lumber. However he hadn't bought it there.

Also changing his plea to guilty yesterday was Vernon Babcock. He was fined $100, costs and ordered to spend three days in jail for drunken driving.

EDUCATIONAL MEETING

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Dr. Eric A. Walker, president of the Pennsylvania State University, today proposed sweeping educational changes designed to meet the twin challenges of Russia's scientific advances and a swiftly changing civilization.

Dr. Walker submitted his nine-point program to some 2,000 educators and laymen attending the 19th annual Citizens Conference on Education.

Warren Borough budget for fiscal 1958 was officially set at $392,196 last night by Borough Council members.

This amount was approximately $8,000 more than the previous year but the tax millage remains the same—26. Finance Committee Chairman Maurice Emery pointed out that during the past month no one had examined a copy of the proposed budget at the Borough Office before it was formally adopted. "Apparently everybody approves," he said.

Elsewhere along its agenda, Council bought Halle's Garage for equipment storage, gave tentative approval to an enlargement of Mulberry Playground and accepted as a gift a part of privately owned land along Public Way.

More important matters were put off for future meetings. Public Works Committee Chairman Nick Merenick stated that though two lengthy sessions had been held, the Committee had not yet arrived at its recommendation of streets to be paved during 1958. This statement followed a petition for paving of Madison Avenue from Marion to Park Street, and appearance of a delegation of Alexander street residents requesting for the second time since 1949 the paving of their street from Conewago avenue to Edgewood place.

Also held in abeyance pending further discussion, said Public Safety Committee Chairman Glen Patchen, were recommendations for all-night parking as more and more streets are paved. Another touchy subject mentioned by Chairman Patchen was a smoke control ordinance. When this is ready, said Mr. Patchen, he would submit it, but only with the stipulation that no action be taken until the following month.

Considerable time was also taken up with the subject of various breeds of dogs—the nightly howler, the garbage sprawner, the child biter, the stray, the uncourted, the unfettered—in general. Burgess William E. Rice pointed out that Warren has no dog license ordinance, and, indeed, was bound by the state law governing dogs, a statute first passed in 1922 and since amended 22 times, said Rice, "depending upon which lobby was in power."

Back to the budget—Councilman John Carbon observed that, in his view of the new assessment total for Warren Borough, some amount might be chipped off the 26-mill tax rate. Councilman Emery asked if the final estimate of the County Commissioners had been received. Borough Manager George Geraci-mos said the Commissioners estimated assessment evaluation of the borough for 1958 was $16,000,000.

Councilman Carbon said that in "speaking to one of them" (presumably a commissioner) he had gotten the impression that a cut in the tax rate would be possible. Finance Committee Chairman Emery said that the new tax assessment (up about $250,000) might permit a tax reduction of perhaps one-quarter mill, adding that if any surpluses accumulated in the various funds they would stay there. Then the tax rate passed unanimously.

Mr. Emery also pointed out that the new assessments were not part of the re-evaluation of property in the county, which figures he thought would be ready "in about two years." One tax mill, he observed, is equivalent to about $14,000.

Council passed another ordinance maintaining the per capita tax rate at $5 per head over 21 years of age.

After reading a letter from the Planning Commission recommending purchase of Robert and Rose Halle's Garage on Crescent street, Councilman John Newmaker of the Buildings and Lands Committee presented his resolution to purchase the 172- by 75-foot property. (Turn to Page Twelve)

Sgt. Rhodes Insists He Is Innocent of Spying

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sgt. Roy A. Rhodes denied flight today as he went on trial by court-martial on charges of spying for the Soviet Union.

Rhodes is accused of passing secrets to the Soviet while on duty at the U. S. Embassy in Moscow from 1951 to 1953 and after his return to this country. He admitted contacts with the Russians in a Brooklyn spy trial last year.

But today, in advance of the opening of the court-martial at Ft. Lesley J. McNair, he told reporters he is innocent.

DIPLOMATIC CRISIS STIRS PARLIAMENT

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The ambassadors of France and Tunisia shook hands at a White House state dinner last night, but they showed evidence of the strained relations between their countries. As soon as the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had retired from the party, Ambassador Mongi Slim of Tunisia left too. French Ambassador Herve Alphand departed five minutes later.

Protocol had brought the two ambassadors to dinner together at a time when their countries are edgy over the French bombing and strafing of a Tunisian village last Saturday.

The state dinner was the first of two honoring the 84 chiefs of foreign missions in Washington.

By DAVID MASON

PARIS (AP)—Premier Felix Gaillard agreed to immediate parliamentary debate today on the French bombing of a Tunisian frontier village.

The bombing on Saturday set off a diplomatic crisis for France which threatened relations with Tunisia and sparked worldwide criticism of French policy.

Tunisia said 68 persons were killed, 10 were missing and 84 wounded in the raid.

Tension mounted in Tunisia, where French troops have been confined to their bases by order of President Habib Bourguiba who was determined that French troops must be evacuated from his country.

The French National Assembly was packed and the diplomatic galleries full as Gaillard strode to the rostrum and announced he would meet his critics head on. The Assembly suspended for an hour to allow the orators to organize their debates.

The premier has been deeply disturbed by the unfavorable foreign reaction—particularly in the United States and among France's Western allies.

He has been in almost continual meetings with his ministers, deputies in the assembly, diplomats and others. He has conferred with (Turn to Page Twelve)

Jersey City Still Suffering From Water Line Break

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—This city remained in a state of emergency today as an unlocated break in a gigantic water main kept pouring tons of water somewhere underground.

The possibility of cave-ins caused by the eating away of under earth was still considered the greatest danger, and police and firemen continued through the night to search for the break on foot, bicycle and auto.

Deputy Police Chief Joseph B. Foley, the city civil defense director, said he is ready to evacuate 1,000 residents to the Jersey City armory should the leak be found under any tenement area. National Guard trucks would be used and commercial buses commandeered, he said.

The search thus far has been confined mainly to the downtown and Lafayette areas, where about 100,000 persons—a third of the city's population—were without water for a time early yesterday.

Northern Lights Affect Radio-TV And Press Wires

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Aurora Borealis, the Northern Lights, put on a brilliant display over North America last night. The skies glowed with bright red and pink hues and in some areas green and yellow colors. Radio and TV transmissions and news teletype wires were affected in the United States and Canada.

Observers in northwestern California saw bright red lights streaming over the top of a low cloud bank. The lights later were reported turned to white.

In Ohio a smoky red band was reported in the skies. It looked like a forest fire over Washington, D.C., and brightly colored red, blue and green flashes were seen over Minneapolis, Minn.

The Northern Lights are caused by streams of particles shot out from the sun. Striking the earth's high atmosphere, they excite atoms of air and cause them to glow.

Fish & Game Club At Brokenstraw Places Game Food

On Saturday, Brokenstraw Fish and Game Club members began what members hope will continue into a series of activities which are designed to provide a winter food supply for game animals.

Despite blizzard weather, Wade Ransom, John Zock and Bill Warner set feeding stations in the areas of Brown Hill, Hull Hill and Indian Camp Run. Oats and corn for grouse and rabbits were left on Brown Hill, while clover hay for deer was spread in Hull Hill and Brown Hill feeding stations.

Bill Warner and Ellis Billsborough helped the project by distributing six cases of lettuce, cauliflower and other greens donated by Youngsville merchants. Bert Richards and Ted Yucka built the feeder stations.

James Suppa Garage in Irvine donated a truck, Barton's Service Station gave gasoline, Game Protector William Overturf provided corn, Clyde Darling gave oats and the club bought hay.

Kenneth Dimmy, who owns property along Brokenstraw creek, gave permission for Ferdinand Hubert and Walter Felt to remove "No Trespassing" signs in preparation for the spring stocking program.

We Salute

And take justifiable pride in our contribution of engineering skill and manufacturing know-how that helps all of us to live better electrically.

We are happy to join the rest of the electrical industry in celebrating the 111th birthday of Thomas A. Edison.

NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK February 9-15

It is most appropriate the National Electrical Week should be observed each year at the time of Thomas Edison's birthday. Somehow, he typifies many of those sturdy characteristics that drove America forward so rapidly during his lifetime.

It is true that the electrical industry is celebrating their past accomplishments, but more important, during National Electrical Week, they will rededicate their industry to continuing progress and service to the nation.

National Electrical Week

February 9-15

This month we join with the rest of America to celebrate the 111th birthday of Thomas A. Edison, inventor of the first practical incandescent light bulb, and founder of our modern electrical industry. The purpose of National Electrical week is to increase our knowledge and appreciation of electricity and its many uses, and to recognize the contributions that the electrical industry makes to our nation's progress and economy. We are proud to be a member and play a part in this vital industry... and proud to join with the other members of the industry across the nation in paying tribute to the memory of Thomas Edison, whose spirit of constant seeking for new and better ways to use the magic of electricity still guides electrical progress.

THOMAS A. EDISON

Full Speed Ahead --- Into the Space Age---

In the next few years man will take many giant steps forward in his exploration of outer space. To meet the challenge of this unprecedented opportunity to push back the horizons of our knowledge, the best scientific, engineering and electrical minds have been marshalled. Time will be of the essence as the electrical industry, along with many others, is called upon for materials, equipment and precision instruments essential for continued research and experimentation.

Progress through electrical research—the legacy of Edison and other electrical pioneers. We celebrate "Science Youth Day" Feb. 11th, sponsored by the International Edison Birthday Committee and the Thomas Alva Edison Foundation, Inc., to encourage young people in greater numbers to take advantage of the growing opportunities for careers in science and engineering, stimulate greater interest in science education and the world of technology emerging from the nation's Laboratories.

Scout Movement Makes Its Mark On Way of Life

We read, only too frequently, of boys who get into trouble. It has been said that they number but 2 per cent. But we do not hear often of those others who are trying to make something of their lives.

Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, gives us pause to reflect on a volunteer movement that has made its mark in America. Here we find boys becoming Scouts for the sheer enjoyment there is in it.

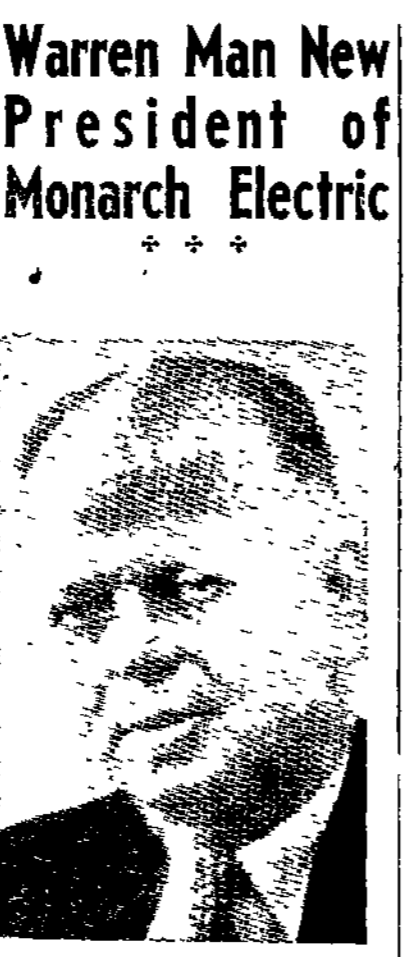

The adult volunteer leaders in Scouting—and there are over 1,200,000 of them—realize that Scouting is something more than fun. They know it is a game with a purpose.

That purpose is to help boys become men by teaching them to play a team game for a citizenship role later and to inculcate in their daily lives a code of living influenced by the Scout Oath and Law.

When a boy joins a troop at his church, synagogue, school, or other community institution he becomes a member of a patrol. It is here he gets a lesson in democracy as he shares in the patrol planning, elects a patrol leader, and learns to live with his fellow patrol members as brother Scouts.

The program of Boy Scouting keeps a boy busy learning such skills as first aid, signaling, cooking and camping while imparting many traits of good citizenship. There is a program of advancement that is indeed a measurement of a boy's ability to stand on his own two feet.

America is all the richer because so many millions of boys through the years have chosen this program of character building while seeking fun and companionship.

New Assignment For Director of Pitt. Symphony

PITTSBURGH — William Steinberg is to become conductor and music director of two of the world's foremost symphony orchestras, which Steinberg has headed for six years, said the German-born maestro has arranged to undertake a similar assignment with the London Philharmonic Orchestra.

Charles Denby president of the Pittsburgh Symphony Society, said the arrangement will permit Steinberg to continue his present activities here. Denby said Steinberg will conduct the London Philharmonic for four weeks in September and early October, four weeks in midwinter, and four weeks in May and early June. The fall concerts in London will precede the Pittsburgh winter program, the midwinter period will coincide with the time Steinberg has been on tour and absent from his own orchestra in recent seasons and the spring schedule will follow completion of the Pittsburgh season.

Steinberg, 53, came to Pittsburgh six years ago, after a term as musical director of the Buffalo, N. Y. Philharmonic Orchestra.

Mrs. Harry Granquist told of excellent progress being made in acquiring addition of genealogical books to Hunter Memorial Library. As registrar, she reported two new members accepted, Mrs. Jean Crossett of Warren and Mrs. Winifred Alexander, Bradford. Mrs. Crossett was present and was welcomed by the regent, Mrs. Iva Olmsted, Ludlow.

NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK

Feb. 9-15, 1958

We Pay Tribute to the Dean of Electrical Living--Thomas A. Edison

Probably no one man in our history has had so much to do with making the everyday lives of so many people so much easier, healthier, and more enjoyable.

This American search for better ways goes ceaselessly forward. Today, the techniques are different in our great research centers, but the objectives are the same as Edison's.

This is the dawn of a new era, in which man will take many steps forward in his exploration of outer space. Electrical research and science will play a most important part in this challenge to conquer the unknown.

During this week, the men and women of the Electrical Industry, pay tribute to Edison and rededicate their industry to continuing progress and service to the nation.

WANTED: A Thousand THOMAS A. EDISONS

National Electrical Week—February 15—marks the 111th anniversary of the birth of Thomas A. Edison, the genius who brought electricity out of the laboratory and put it to practical use for mankind.

Edison worked untiringly to develop the first practical electric light bulb and the electric generating equipment needed to bring lighting to our homes. It can be truly said that Edison laid the foundation for today's fast-growing, electrical-electronics industry—an industry directly employing more than 3 million people, plus millions more who are dependent upon the industry's success—share owners, dealers and distributors and local businesses in communities where the industry's plants and laboratories are located.

We at the local Sylvania plant are proud to be members of this vital industry that has contributed so much to the nation's strength and prosperity. We join with other members of our industry in paying tribute to the memory of Edison, whose pioneering spirit of constantly seeking new and better ways to use the magic of electricity still guides electrical progress.

Another outstanding program was had by the Warren YMCA Industrial Management Association at its Ladies' Night dinner-meeting Monday night, at the "Y" building. Rev. Herbert Harrison gave not only a humorous address, but one which was thought-provoking also.

Attendance prizes were given the following ladies: Mrs. Julius Schultz, Mrs. Roy Davidson, Mrs. Robert Cogswell, Mrs. Dona Schaefer, Mrs. Paul Jackson, Mrs. Beecher Rutledge and Mrs. Culmer Schultz.

A Song Fest was led by C. Roy Lewis, accompanied by Lynn Keller. Dr. Culmer Schultz gave the invocation and Rev. Beecher Rutledge introduced the speaker.

Decorations were exceptionally well done by a committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reed; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Olson and Harry King. Rose corsages were given to every lady present.

Another interesting program is looked forward to at the next dinner-meeting which will be Monday, March 10th, at the YMCA Building, when J. D. Anderson, manager of the United States Atomic Energy Commission from Schenectady, N. Y., will speak on "Atomic Energy in Industry."

James J. Ryan, president, presided at last night's meeting.

SCHOOL OF MISSIONS TO FEATURE FILM

Tomorrow evening at 7:00 o'clock, the film "Broken Mask" will be shown in the Assembly Room of First Presbyterian church. The film was sponsored by 12 denominations and produced for the Joint Commission on Missionary Education under the supervision of the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the National Council of Churches and is being used by churches in the study of the theme "Christ, The Church and Race".

Based on an incident in a summer camp when one youth is faced with the responsibility of cutting away a plaster mask which has hardened on the face of another, the theme leads on into other situations, telling a forceful story about the masks of prejudice—masks which all of us wear. Appropriately, this program falls on Lincoln's birthday, the date

"You've Tried the Best... Now Try the Best"

But one Edison, or even 100 Edisons, in a generation cannot sustain our industry's progress. Today's electrical-electronics industry depends upon many thousands of scientists and engineers, and many thousands more will be needed in the years ahead—men and women with the kind of vision, imagination and courage that took Edison on his lifelong conquest of the unknown.

To help produce these modern Edisons for tomorrow, we join in the international observance of Science Youth Day on February 11—the anniversary of Edison's birth. And we urge youth in greater numbers to seek careers in science and engineering. No careers offer more challenges or greater opportunities for young Americans.

ON THE BEACH IN WAIKIKI—This 2,000-room hotel, The Hawaiian Village at Waikiki Beach in Honolulu, stands as a monument to a turned down request for space. Back in 1953, millionaire Henry J. Kaiser, chairman of the board of Kaiser Industries Corporation, was turned down on his request for a reservation at the Honolulu hotel where he usually stayed. So Kaiser built his own hotel. Eight hundred rooms are now open with the rest to be ready by 1959. The grounds include five swimming pools and four night clubs.

Letters to Editor

Editor
Times-Mirror
Warren, Penna.

An extremely dangerous condition exists on the river road in Pleasant township. At one point the forty foot bank of the Allegheny river has washed away to within two or three inches of the pavement.

Two school buses pass over this point four times daily, one carrying sixty pupils, the other 35. There is no alternate road. When the ground begins to thaw, the pavement is going to collapse. The weight of these buses will be instrumental.

This matter has repeatedly been drawn to the attention of those we thought were in authority to do something about it. It has been tossed back and forth for months, each disclaiming responsibility.

When the road does go out, which is inevitable, it will have to be re-routed immediately. It is traveled every day by hundreds of people going back and forth to work, and to town. Must this be done after a great tragedy has taken place, or can that tragedy be averted? It would not cost one cent less the day after than it would the day before.

The State compels us to send our children to school. Most of the children in Pleasant township must ride the school bus as they live too far away to walk. We parents have become desperately concerned. You who read this letter, please put yourselves in the position of a mother sending her child away from home every morning, not knowing whether or not he will return. The element of danger in riding a school bus is always great, and the position of the bus driver is responsibility enough, with all those clamoring boisterous children, without added distractions. If any of you know anyone we can contact, or any way we can awaken those whose job it is to take care of our highways, will you please write a letter—to the Times-Mirror, your Congressman—anyone who will help us to take action before it is too late.

Yours very truly,
A Concerned Mother

Year-long Nation Safety Good Turn Week Is Launched

The 1800 boys and leaders of the Chief Cornplanter Council, Boy Scouts of America will join 4,709,000 others in the organization in launching a year-long National Safety Good Turn during Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, it was announced by Dr. William Ball, Health and Safety chairman of the council.

The Scouts' national service project was suggested by President Eisenhower, Honorary President of the Boy Scouts. In a White House message Mr. Eisenhower told the Scouts: "In our land each individual is of inestimable worth, yet in no other land do accidents cause a more terrible loss of human life and limb. This fact cannot be passively accepted. We must seek new ways to save the basic resources of our Nation: its people."

"Encouraged by the splendid results of your Conservation Good Turn four years ago, I now urge you to adopt Safety as your service project for 1958. Through the concerted action of your members, and in cooperation with other organizations, you can alert the public to the urgent need for reducing the tragic toll of accidents."

"This is an opportunity for service to your country in the highest tradition of the Boy Scouts of America."

The Scouts' National Safety Good Turn is being coordinated nationally and locally with other safety programs and campaigns. National safety organizations have advised and assisted Scout leaders in developing plans and projects.

Dr. Ball said that during March, April and May the projects will involve traffic safety. Outdoor safety projects will keep Scouts busy in June, July and August. Home safety will be featured in September, October and November.

Next October, Dr. Ball said local Scouts will distribute to approximately 15,000 homes a Civil Defense booklet on family preparedness for emergencies.

Dragon Reserves Score Easy Win In Corry Game

Doug Lind tossed in 14 points to lead the Dragon Reserves to an easy 50-20 victory over the Corry yearlings in a prelim to the varsity clash Friday night. Ross Kremer with nine and Dick Fowler's eight aided in the run-away. Corry's scoring was equally divided but D. Dreaser's eight was high for the losers. Coach Hostie's quint jumped off to a 16-8 first quarter lead and were never threatened thereafter.

In the special feature the McClintock Gray Y five edged the North Warren Gray Y by a score of 9 to 4. Sam Loomis, North Warren's mentor, has challenged the McClintock cagers to another game claiming that his boys were visibly affected by the large crowd and the size of the floor. Whether or not Coaches Johnson and Stimmel of the West Side institution will accept is not known. However, since the exhibition was so well received by the crowd, another attempt to schedule the two teams will be made. Creola, Johnson, Loran, Arnold, Bevevino and Albaugh comprised the winning team. For the losers Chase, Loomis, Crossett and Larson starred.

Wrap-Around Holds the Wilt To Career Low of 6 Points

By DON WEISS

Fabulous Wilt the Stilt Chamberlain, seven feet tall, took only five shots last night, scoring a career low of six points. He just concentrated on feeding his teammates, and the Kansas Jayhawks won a 60-51 victory over Colorado.

Chamberlain did it all in answer to a three-man, wrap-around defense set up by the Buffaloes at Colorado. And he did it to the detriment of his scoring average, which dipped to 31.1 from 32.86 during the fantastic show.

Only once before in his college career had Wilt been anywhere so low in scoring — last Feb. 18 when he fired shot after shot but could manage only 11 points against Oklahoma.

The Jayhawks were comfortably in front all the way. Alan Donaghy had 25 points and Ron Loneski and Bob Billings 14 each.

Despite the victory, Kansas remains two games behind Kansas

Warren Field & Stream Club Invites Members

Warren Field and Stream Club, which is currently conducting a big membership drive, has extended an invitation to all area conservationists and sportsmen to attend its meeting in the YMCA beginning at 7:30 p. m. today.

After a short business session, two movies will be shown. The first will deal with the construction and firing of "coral" rockets. The other film shows thrills of the Monza auto classic in Europe.

In soliciting members, Warren Field and Stream points out that only by concerted action can sportsmen protect and improve their position. The Club does not ask for "joiners" as much as "participants."

Worthwhile projects can only be accomplished by joint efforts, many of which have resulted in the organization's expansive fish stocking program, a great impetus for Chapman State Park, a fish stocking area behind the dam at Chandlers Valley, anti-littering campaigns, stocking of rabbits and ringnecks.

Owls and Dragons Meet on Beaty Court Tonight, 8:15

Tonight at 8:15 P. M., the Bradford Owls, perennial powerhouse of District Nine basketball, will tilt around Beaty court in an attempt to square matters with the speedy Dragons of Warren High. Earlier the local cagers upset the rangy Owls in a thriller by a score of 37-31. The game wasn't decided until the final minute of play when Creola took a pass from Mike Cashman to ice the chiller.

Currently Bradford is in second place in their league while Warren is third in Sectional play. Warren's defensive strategy stymied the Owls in the initial encounter but whether it can be done again remains to be seen. The Dragons must equalize Bradford's height advantage. The Owls boast of the tallest team in District Nine with four of their starters hitting over the 6-foot mark. Tallest are Graham at 6-4 and Pettit 6-3. The rangy Owls also showcase Carmen Cavallero, chosen all-state center in football, Marty Driehup and "Whitney" Jones on their formidable quint.

Just how the Dragons will line up against the Owls isn't certain. In an attempt to off-set the Owl height, Mervine, Cashman and possibly Yerg may be used at the same time. However, this cuts down on the speed and seems improbable. McKelvey, who did an excellent job at Bradford may get the call in tonight's tussle. Monroe, Karkosky, Creola, Brumagin and Peterson will see action.

In the prelim the Dragon Reserves will be pitted against an array of Owlettes that have not suffered defeat as yet. In their first meeting the locals suffered a lopsided defeat. First game starts at 7:00 with the main game going on at 8:15 P. M.

THIS IS A FIGHTER?—Carmen Basilio strikes a dove-of-peace pose which would be a good ad for the United Nations. But he doesn't mean it. He just stopped roadwork in Miami for a few minutes to feed pigeons. Then he went on preparing for his brawl with Ray Robinson, March 25 at Chicago Stadium.

erty for $15,000 as tentatively approved at an earlier meeting. It was unanimously accepted. In the Planning Commission let-ter, signed by Secretary D. M. Kinander, it stated the Borough could well use the property as well as the frame garage it held for parking equipment.

A second letter from the Planning Commission recom-mended purchase of approxi-mately eight acres of land ad-jacent to Mulberry Playground for $10,000. Owner H. L. Link said he would accept any terms thought proper by the Borough. The Planning Commission stated that most of the purchase money could probably be recov-ered by sale of part of the land as residential sites. The property is part in, part out of the Borough.

Council authorized Borough Solicitor S. Knox Harper to draw up the proper ordinance in regard to the sale.

Lt. Geary Bean was granted military leave of absence to spend Feb. 23 to March 9 with a Norfolk submarine squadron, address aboard the U.S.S. Bush-nell. Patrolman B. L. Wine-gardner was granted an Air Reserve leave from March 8-22.

A unanimous resolution was passed, asking the State Secre-tary of Highways for explicit permission for an extension to the present light at the broad Market street and Water street intersection.

The resignation of O. E. Nicholson as Borough Auditor was accepted, effective Jan. 29, 1958, and John J. Smith of 5 Hill street, was unanimously appointed to replace him, term expiring in January, 1962.

Ray J. Reed was reappointed a member of the Planning Commission from which he re-signed two months ago. Council President Leon Laskaris said it was a "fine thing that Mr. Reed agreed to return" to the commission.

A resolution unanimously ac-cepted conveyance of land as a public street on Public Way from Leonard and Rose imperial. They gave over title to a small triangular section.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Burgess Rice told Council members he thought no dog ordinance needed to be passed since the borough was bound to uphold the state law anyway. His remarks followed an earlier appearance at the meeting by Eugene Manfrey of 711 Conewango avenue, who testified to the numerous com-plaints he had been forced to make about dogs mulling his garbage. "And I'm a dog lover," said Mr. Manfrey, noting that he kept his two beagles penned, as prescribed by law.

Mr. Manfrey had another complaint, and that was about the dangerous situation which exists on Conewango avenue regarding two-way traffic and cars parked on both sides. In Mr. Manfrey's case, the situa-tion is aggravated because of business establishments nearby his residence and on both sides of Conewango. There should be some sort of arrangement, said Manfrey, so that one of the cars would know when to yield the right of way.

Bonds were approved for Borough Officers, $25,000 for Treasurer R.W. Steber, and lesser amounts for those with less fiscal responsibility.

Borough Engineer Robert De-Bell reported the deep founda-tions at the new sewage plant on the South Side had been put in, thus preventing need to worry about any possible spring floods. Same was true, he added, for construction pro-gress at the lift station at Pine street.

Appearing in behalf of a re-quest to have Alexander street paved were Sherrold H. Adams, Joe G. Duffield, Harry W. Johnson, Dr. Lawrence W. Krespan, Albert J. Watson.

They wanted to know, in ef-fect, why their petition had been ignored in 1949 and offered reasons why the latest one signed by a majority of the owners should not be. The street, stated the petition, has no vacant lots, is constantly flooded by rains which ruin driveway accesses and make costly street repairs necessary, and because the street is a main access to Home Street School.

The Rev. Carl Nelson of St. Paul's Lutheran church gave the invocation.

The freeze was still on in Pen-sylvania today with little relief in sight from winter's coldest spell.

The entire Keystone State was sheathed in ice as the mercury plunged to new lows for the season. It ranged from a bitter 19 below zero to Henderson in Ven-ango County—the state's unofficial ice-box—to 11 at Philadelphia.

A snowstorm struck portions of western Pennsylvania and the mass of cold air blew eastward to maintain the freezing tempera-tures that have gripped the state everywhere.

Police Report

Treasurer during 1957 amounted to $33,441, with the following large items: $24,925 parking meter receipts; $4,735, vehicle code violations; $2,315, parking violations; $773 borough ordi-nance violations.

Meter violations for overtime totaled 2,850 with the most, 486 in December, and the least, 84, in July. Trapped for parking overtime at 2-hour meters were 154, with 385 ticketed for park-ing from 3 to 6 a. m. on paved streets. Ninety-one were locked up for disorderly conduct, aver-aging about nine a month. One hundred twenty-one got paying notices in September.

Eighty-four complaints of lar-geous acts (under $200) were reported in 1957. Twenty-two were cleared up by arrest or restitution. Thirteen were pick-ed up on morals charges, one for an obscene phone call, one dog poisoning was reported and one curb cruiser, two cases of ar-son, three attempted suicides, among many others.

Twenty-one drunk drivers ap-peared in Criminal Court during the year.

Chief Evan concludes his re-port with a statement that the police pension fund now totals $101,228, up $23,000 from the first of the year.

The police harbored 460 trans-ients in a room at the Municip-al Building during 1957. Says the report: "A good many are not vagrants but rather men 'down on their luck' who seek employment here or elsewhere. Some, of course, are hobos in the fullest sense of the word. Having no fixed residence, they form travel patterns which keep bringing them back. Some re-turn in a month, others not for a year, though Warren has the reputation as 'a good flop town'. As such there are no more hobo jungles bordering local streams and railroad tracks."

Members decided to use a local Authority to build the new high school rather than the State School Building Author-ity.

Committee also discussed the perennial problem of removing snow around the buildings and decided to ask the borough what it would cost them to handle this and lawn care now done by hand by custodians.

Home bond instruction was approved for Robert LaJoie who has a broken leg. Approved the Dragoo Band appearance Feb. 22 at Warren State Hos-pital in a program sponsored by Cooties.

High School Principal Joseph Passaro was authorized to in-vestigate how many students might be interested in taking a summer typing course, and also the number of juniors who might be interested in a sum-mer driving course. It was pointed out that the size of next year's junior class would make it impossible to handle all of them. Summer band was also approved.

The Committee approved: Joe Massa's inclusion on the visiting committee at Kittan-ning March 25-27; Dr. Schultz's recommendations for committee of ministerium on religious edu-cation.

Board also received a run-down of utility costs over the years, set aside $1,500 for Beatty and high school library books and $12,000 for text books next year.

Warren Boy Choir was per-mitted to use Beatty April 28 and Bell Telephone, for an area meeting, Sept. 24.

Welk 2nd Fiddles With "Sun Spots"

The popular Lawrence Welk Show last night played "2nd fiddle" to a spectacular north-ern lights display much to the chagrin of many people on the TV cable.

It is now a known fact that when old Sol acts up and bom-bards the earth's atmosphere with huge doses of ultra vio-let, all communications are up-set, especially channel 2. This phenomenon shows itself in several forms, several of which are dancing horizontal dark areas in the picture, and the reception of other channel 2 stations from distant cities that otherwise would not interfere in normal times.

Bill Loucks, manager of the local cable company reports that many telephone calls were received last night concerning this temporary condition, which has been comparatively rare the last few months due to the fact that the 11th year sun spot cycle is nearing its end.

As explained in several pre-vious newspaper and radio an-nouncements, there is no known remedy for this interference and the early news from Buf-falo this morning testified that it was country wide last night, affecting all channel 2 pictures in the northern part of U. S. A.

Hank Stohl of KDKA-TV, Mike Levine of KDKA radio, Hilary Bogden of WAMP and Mike Lee of WPIT handled the mike. Other radio and TV men will announce the remaining Golden Gloves shows. Paul Channon of KDKA-TV is chief announcer.

Ozzie is a fight-ing cock in the bantam class whose bouts are as hectic as an Italian movie; Bernie Stein, a scabback who led the Allegheny High football team in scoring.

Golden Gloves officials in-clude Director Fred P. Tate, President AMA; assistant di-rectors: Ed Siegal, Rich Bog-gess, Harold Gordon, Eddie Alexander, and Jim Cronin; matchmakers: John J. Burke, assistant to the president; Thos. F. Bolter and Art Toner; AMA boxing chairman, Fette Borlin; judges: Fred Armbruster, chief, Joe Cimino, Dave Freedman, Gene Strone, Willie Davis, Bruno Sala, Al Dalessio, Theo. Scout Recognition Ceremony As Told in Pictures

Thanks for a job well done is being given to the men who led the Chief Cornplanter Scouts to the 4th National Jamboree at Valley Forge last summer. Bob Anstadt, Jamboree Chairman is shown presenting a certificate of appreciation from the national council to the three men at the Recognition Ceremony at the court house Saturday. Left to right is Jim Palmer, Scoutmaster of Troop 2, Warren, Mr. Anstadt, Leo Rapp, Advisor of Post 13, North Warren, and Paul Grosch, Scoutmaster of Troop 13, North Warren.

The need for a Safety Good Turn, encompassing the home, the open road, and the out of doors is graphically portrayed by Explorers of Post 13, North Warren at the Leader's Recognition Day at the Court House last Saturday. Shown are Dick Bauer, Field Scout Executive, Jerry Shephard, Edward Grosch, Leo Rapp, advisor, and Scout Executive Elmer Morgan. Missing from the picture is Explorer Bill Lombard.

Henry Walker, Scout training co-chairman is pictured presenting the Scoutmaster's training key to Joe Acks, Scoutmaster of Troop 6, Warren. On the right is Paul Shogren, who has just received the Scoutmaster's Training Award. Both Awards are for completing a three year training program.

Wild Life News

An increase of does compared to bucks is making a smaller proportion of the herd available to hunters each buck season, according to an appraisal of the situation made during past deer seasons by Allegheny National Forest Supervisor John E. Franson.

According to observations made opening day for the past three years, the ratio of antlered and antlerless deer has increased from 1:23 in 1955 to 1:39 in 1956 and to 1:57 in 1957. Observations the second day of the season show a similar rise from 1:55 to 1:86. On the last day of the past buck hunting season not one of the hunters queried reported seeing a single buck.

Another aspect of the survey showed that deer weights the past season were somewhat lower than the previous year. In 1957, 62 percent of the herd was equally divided in the 81 to 90-pound and 91 to 100-pound class. In 1956, twenty-five percent of the kill was in the higher weight class and 29 percent was in the 101 to 110-pound class, which got only 17 percent of the 1957 kill.

Weights were determined by measuring girth immediately behind front legs and using a weight table based on a correlation of girth taken at place described and actual weight.

The report continues that "the number of hunters using 740,000 acres of the first day of deer season (1957) is estimated to be 64,000, slightly less than last year. About 26,000 hunters hunted on the second day of the antlerless season."

Hunter cars per mile of road were figured to be 23.9 in 1957, compared to 20.7 the year before and 17.0 the year before that. However, only 2.8 hunters were averaged for each car for 1957, compared to 3.1 and 3.2 in preceding years. On the second day of buck season, 13.6 cars were reported per mile of road, and 1.3 on the last day. For doe season, 11.1 cars were reported per mile.

One constant was the amount of time most spent hunting. This averages to about 2.4 days over the past three seasons.

Boy Scouts Make Contributions to Friendship Fund

The Chief Cornplanter Council, Boy Scouts of America, announced today that its Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and adult leaders have contributed $47.30 to the World Friendship Fund of the organization.

Known as "the Good Turn with the long reach," the World Friendship Fund began in 1945 as a continuing effort to help Scout associations in other lands reach more boys.

To carry on Scouts and leaders across the seas need many things. Members of the Boy Scouts of America are helping to meet these needs through their contributions of nickels, dimes, quarters, and dollars.

The World Friendship Fund gives Scouts in this country an opportunity to demonstrate helpful friendliness in a big way.

Mr. Elmer Morgan, Scout executive, of the Chief Cornplanter council, said the World Fellowship Fund started as an emergency fund to fill disaster needs. During World War II, many countries in Europe and the Far East lost much of their Scout equipment and materials. When surplus war material became available it was possible, through the fund, to purchase and distribute camping gear to Scout associations that lost everything during the war.

Further assistance was given to associations abroad by making available translations of basic handbooks, uniforms, badges, insignia, and other items until they could supply their own.

Each year thousands of Scout handbooks and other publications have been sent to individual Scouts, leaders and associations in over sixty countries.

A complete visual training kit, including projectors, transformer and a complete library of training films, was given to the Boy Scouts of Pakistan. Training films were given to many other countries.

The fund also assisted in the international Scout exchange which involved several hundred older Scouts of twenty-two countries, including the United States, who exchanged visits to further strengthen the ties of Scout friendship and international understanding.

World Fellowship training scholarships were made available by the fund which enabled Scout leaders from over twenty-five countries to attend the National Training School conducted at Mendham, New Jersey, for professional leaders in Scouting.

Trained American staff advisers were sent to Germany, Japan and Korea to give special help to their Scout associations.
